

A STATEMENT FOR UJCC AND THE SOUTH SUDAN REFUGEES IN MOYO - UGANDA BY ECUMENICAL NETWORK OF SOUTH SUDAN - AFRICA HUB. AS THEY COMMEMORATE INTERNATIONAL PEACE DAY

We greet you in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. We ( Ecumenical Network of South Sudan - Africa Hub).

Would like to express our solidarity, knowing quite well your ever commendable efforts towards your support for the people of South Sudan, More so the refugees that you have hosted so warmly.

You have been true ambassadors of the love of Christ. May the gospel you preach and the kindness you show continue giving hope to the refugees as we speak peace and stability upon the nation of South Sudan.

As faith leaders, we cherish the sanctity of life and the protection of human dignity. We believe that the humanitarian crisis in South Sudan can only be resolved if South Sudanese leaders embrace true peace and love for their people and nation.

Our prayers, thoughts and unending support are always with you.

"Whoever brings blessing will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered." Proverbs 11:25

May your cup forever overflow.

To the people of South Sudan we know of your longing for hope. A hope of a lasting peace, reconciliation and rebuilding of your Nation.

Faith in God is what there is to hold on to. Once again we call upon South Sudanese leaders who have a moral obligation to you to end the violence and ensure continued progress towards peace, stability and justice.

Faith leaders from the African region are asking President Salva Kiir, Dr. Riek Machar and other South Sudanese leaders to deliver on their promises by November 12, to lead the people of South Sudan to re-discover the soul of the nation and breathe love and peace into it.

We equally call upon the political leaders in the region to use their influence towards enabling the People of South Sudan realise Sustainable peace. As Religious leaders from the Region ,we shall not tire till God's will for Peace in South Sudan is realized.

"Blessed those who work for peace, for they will be called the children of God." Matthew 5:9
